

Tj Fuller

On September 18th, 1991, Tj was born in Talladega, Alabama. At that time, he was the baby of the children, with two big sisters, Traci and Amanda. Later on he'd become the big brother to a little sister and little brother, Kelsey and Jake. Despite being born in Alabama, Tj grew up in Tennessee-mainly Hickman County. Growing up, he played football, rode his motorcycles, and hung out with friends. Before he knew it, Tj became a father. When he passed, Tj was an active father to 5 children. If you knew Tj, you knew that (other than fishing or hunting) his children held his heart. Unfortunately, those 5 children are now living life with only memories of their daddy. Tj attended many sporting events, doctor's appointments, back-to-school activities, all pertaining to his kids. Also, Tj was an uncle to 2 nephews and 5 nieces. Three months after his passing, two nephews were added-one of which received the name "Tj" as his middle name to honor his Uncle Tj. Those who knew Tj, knew that he loved his nieces and nephews dearly. He is described by those around him as very funny, intelligent, and "he'd give you the shirt off of his back" kind of generous. In addition, Tj was a hard-worker. He worked mainly in heavy equipment operator job positions, as he did when he passed. Tj worked at an electrician company in Murfreesboro, Tn with his step-dad and his little brother Jake. Although he knew how to operate them all, his main machine was the excavator. Tj was actively teaching Jake not only heavy machinery skills, but also important life skills. If there was ever the best big brother role model, it was Tj. It has been said that big brothers become like second fathers. This statement could not be more true. Tj was a protector, listener, and gave good wise advice on life. Many will remember him by the sound of his distinct loud laugh, and his smile. Tj made a way to find the positive aspect in every situation. Tj will be remembered by his kindness, his humor, his intelligence, his hard-working abilities, but mostly his generosity and love.

We ask that if you have a story you'd like to share about Tj or a picture with him, email it to the EMail Address listed on the memorial website-My Brother's Keeper. The family would enjoy hearing other's stories about their loved one. In addition, it is encouraged to live life to the fullest like Tj would if he were here right now.
